

U.S. Space Force (USSF) and the Language Enabled Airman Program (LEAP) Scholar / Applicant

Q: If I transfer to the USSF, will I be allowed to continue in LEAP?

A: Yes, the Air Force Culture and Language Center (AFCLC) will continue supporting the career-spanning development of LEAP scholars who transfer to the USSF.

Q: Will individuals assigned to or who are in the process of applying for transfer to the USSF be allowed to apply for LEAP during the FY20 board cycle?

A: Yes, all Air Force and USSF members who meet other LEAP eligibility factors will be allowed to apply to LEAP during the established period of 1 May thru 15 July 2020.

Q: Will cadets who are commissioning into the USSF be eligible to apply for LEAP?

A: Yes, individuals commissioning out of the United States Air Force Academy and Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps into the Regular Air Force or USSF are eligible to apply for LEAP.

Q: How will the AFCLC factor in air versus space skills when selecting LEAP scholars for Advanced Language Intensive Training Event (LITE) opportunities?

A: The AFCLC will consider language and cultural developmental needs first but also take into account service-specific and career-field development objectives, tailored to each LEAP scholar, whenever possible.

If you have any further questions, please contact the AFCLC at AFCLC.LEAP.Admin@us.af.mil