

BRIGADIER GENERAL ALFRED K. FLOWERS

Selected for promotion to major general.

Brig. Gen. Alfred K. Flowers is Commander, Air Force Officer Accession and Training Schools, Maxwell Air Force Base, Ala. He is the single point manager for approximately 13,000 students in 144 detachments in the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps program and 1,900 students in Officer Training School. He controls nearly 80 percent of line, chaplain, judge advocate, nurse, medical service and biomedical science officer production for the Air Force. He also oversees the Air Force Junior ROTC program at more than 869 locations with more than 105,000 students.

General Flowers was commissioned following graduation from Officer Training School as a distinguished graduate of the December 1978 class. He first served as a budget officer at the squadron, major command and Air Staff levels. In 1990, he was assigned as Chief of the Budget Operations Division for the Air Combat Command at Langley AFB, Va., where he would later serve as the Chief of Budget. The general has served on the Joint Staff as Defense Resource Manager, and in 1999 he was the Director of Budget Programs for the Department of the Air Force. Prior to his current position, he was assigned as Director, Center for Force Structure, Requirements, Resources and Strategic Assessments, Headquarters U.S. Special Operations Command, MacDill AFB, Fla.
