Colonel David B. Bosco
Commandant Air Force Cyber College

Areas of Expertise

Colonel David B. Bosko is the Commandant, Air Force Cyber College. He was commissioned into the Air Force from the ROTC program at the University of Maryland in 1989, graduating with a Bachelor's in Computer Science. In addition, he has earned a Master of Science from the University of Maryland in Information Technology. He is a Master Cyber Operator and a Basic Space Operator. Col Bosko has commanded four different units, garrison and deployed, and has served on USAFE, AMC, and US CyberCom staffs. Most recently he served at the Cyber Chair for Air University and an instructor at the Air Force Cyber College.