

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

MR. HANK V. FINN

Mr. Finn has over 30 years of experience with the Air Force. As a career Operations Intelligence Officer, he served at all levels from Wing Intel Chief to Air Chief of a North Atlantic Air Defense Intelligence Division. As a MAJCOM Chief of Intelligence Inspections Division he authored numerous joint, coalition, and special operations exercises throughout Europe and Southeast Asia.

For a few short years after retirement, Mr. Finn worked in the Automotive Industry first with General Motors and later with Ford Motor Company and Lincoln. He held positions of Dealership Operations Director, General Manager, and as a Corporate Trainer and Head Hunter for senior management for one of the largest Automotive Groups in the Southeast U.S.

He also has several years of experience as an educator/teacher and Senior Program Manager with Officer and Enlisted Professional Military Education. He served on the Air University HQ staff in the Plans and Programs Directorate and as Director, Air University Protocol.

Prior to his current position, Mr. Finn served as the Director, Expeditionary Skills Training Division, Air Force Culture and Language Center, Maxwell AFB, Alabama.

He holds degrees in English Literature and Education and is a graduate of the Harvard Law School Program on Advanced/Masters Negotiation. Mr. Finn is a certified DOD mediator and is registered with the Department of Hearings and Appeals roster. He is a certified teacher/adjunct instructor at all graduate level AU programs. He is the recent recipient of the 2015 General John Alison "Educator of the Year" Award presented by the Commandant, AF Special Operations School, Hurlburt Fld, Florida.