HIGHLIGHTS 2021-2022

Air University (AU), headquartered at Maxwell AFB, Alabama, is a major component of Air Education and Training Command (AETC). Established in 1946, AU is the lead agent for Air Force education. This overview provides a high-level reflection of Joint and Institutional Accredited Programs as well as Professional Continuing Education (PCE) for Academic Year 2021-2022.

Note: All data are approximated. Data fluctuates based on numerous factors.

Prepared by the AU Office of Academic Affairs, AU/A3, and AU/UR.

The AU Fellows Program is a highly competitive, enhanced developmental program. Fellows are selected by the Developmental Education Designation Board (DEDB) and serve a 2-year assignment in-residence at ACSC (1st year) and then as faculty at OTS, SOS or ACSC (2nd year).

18 AU Fellows were graduates of Columbia, Cornell, and U. of Michigan Certificate Programs.
12 AU Fellows authored curriculum for ACSC/SOS electives.
7 AU Fellows redesigned SOS Joint Warfighting Wargame Capstone.
25 AU Fellows traveled to Davis-Monthan for immersion on operational planning; Agile Combat Employment (ACE) developments; and immersion on current ABMS initiatives.

AIR UNIVERSITY DIVERSITY & INCLUSION STATEMENT

“As the Intellectual and Leadership Development Center of the Air and Space Forces, Air University must embrace an approach within our institution that deliberately integrates Diversity & Inclusion efforts into our culture and demonstrates their value as force multipliers. Such efforts will provide a collection of strengths, perspectives, and capabilities that transcend individual contributions and will strengthen our institution as well as provide long-term viability to our mission of educating and developing Air, Space, and Cyberspace warrior leaders!”

—Lt Gen Andrea D. Tullos, USAF
Commander and President, Air University
