CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT JEFFREY “STORM” STORMAN

CMSgt Jeffrey S. Storman serves as an Instructor, Chief Master Sergeant Leadership Course (CLC), Maxwell-Gunter Annex, Alabama. The CLC provides Chief Master Sergeants the education to bridge strategic vision into tactical execution. There, he teaches the top-tier of Enlisted Professional Military Education (EPME) and is responsible for the development of 750 newly promoted Total Force Chief Master Sergeants annually. As a classroom facilitator, CMSgt Storman is responsible for honing their skills as strategic-level leaders. In addition, he makes recommendations to the Commandant on instructional standards, training, policies and procedures, and supports the development of the academic vision for the future force.

Chief Storman is a native of Orlando, Florida and enlisted in the Air Force in March 1998. Upon completion of Traffic Management Technical School, he was assigned to the 60th Aerial Port Squadron at Travis AFB, California as an Inbound Cargo Specialist and later selected for a special duty assignment as an Recruiter in Brandon, Florida. He has held various positions including Senior Trainer, Standardization & Training and Production Superintendent. Prior to his current position he was the Senior Enlisted Leader at 338th Recruiting Squadron, Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio. He has deployed in support of Operation SOUTHERN WATCH.
