CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT ANTOINETTE M. VOLIOUS

Chief Master Sergeant Antoinette M. Volious is an Instructor at the Chief Master Sergeant Leadership Academy (CLA), Maxwell Air Force Base-Gunter Annex, Montgomery, Alabama. Alongside her esteemed team, she is accountable for the education and development of over 600 Chiefs annually covering a comprehensive four pillar framework to include: strategic leadership; joint and multinational operations; organizational functions and domains; and command leadership. Additionally, she advises the CLA Commandant and senior leadership on standards, policy, and vision for future course advancements.

Chief Volious was born in Lorain, Ohio and enlisted in the Air Force in March 1999 as a Personnelist followed by cross-training into Public Health (PH) in 2005. Her background includes various leadership roles ranging from 18th Wing Air Force Smart Operations for the 21st Century Base Program Manager, 18th Wing Executive Assistant, six years of First Sergeant duty, Superintendent of Air Combat Command's largest PH Flight during the COVID-19 Pandemic, and the Senior Enlisted Leader (SEL), 332d Expeditionary Medical Squadron in support of Operation INHERENT RESOLVE. Prior to her CLA position, Chief Volious served as the 8th Medical Group Chief, Kunsan Air Base, Republic of Korea.
