

Leadership Library Question Prompts

Developed by the Air University Global College

Ask your participants to choose a few of the below question prompts when they conduct their pre-course interviews with their commanders, and to bring the answers with them to the class session. Also encourage them to include the responses as part of their Professional Development Plan (PDP), as well as refer to them during in-class discussions. These answers and resulting ideas or suggestions can be the foundation for creating a FCLC Leadership Library and perhaps lead to a local leadership book discussion group.

Question Prompts	Response
What are you reading now?
What is a book that you read as a junior leader?
What would you recommend I read given my interest in (fill in your personal interest area)?
Are there any books you wish you had read earlier in your career?
Is there a leadership author or a leadership book series you recommend?
Are there any books that changed your perspective?
Notes:	