UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT ROSITA C. GOODRUM

Chief Master Sergeant Rosita C. Goodrum is the Commandant of the Gunter Noncommissioned Officer Academy, Maxwell AFB, Gunter Annex, Alabama. She is directly responsible for the daily operations of the academy and the leadership and development of 12 faculty members. She prepares the instructor staff through in-service training, formulates academy policy, and implements higher headquarters policies and procedures. Additionally, she counsels and evaluates over 580 active duty, guard, and reserve students annually and plans, directs, and hosts 7 graduation events each year. She also manages 55 thousand dollars in resources and liaises with joint service, civic and Air Force leaders to enhance support of enlisted education.

Prior to assuming her current position, CMSgt Goodrum served as the Superintendent, 366th Financial Acquisition Squadron, Mountain Home AFB, Idaho. She led a squadron of 81 military and civilian personnel directly overseeing financial services to 11,900 personnel, planning and executing the wing's 84 million dollar budget and managing a 202 million dollar payroll account. Additionally, she was responsible for managing a 197 million dollar contract portfolio driving service, commodity, and construction contracts in support of the 366th Fighter Wing, 3 tenant units, and the Republic of Singapore Air Force.

CMSgt Goodrum entered the Air Force in November 1999. Her background includes diverse duties within the contracting career field serving at squadron and Air Force Major Command levels. Her assignments include bases in Japan, New Mexico, Florida, New Jersey, Virginia, and Ohio. CMSgt Goodrum has deployed in support of Operation ENDURING FREEDOM (Afghanistan).
