

2023 USAWC STRATEGY COMPETITION

Last month, the AUTLC team hit the road and joined the Air Command & Staff College Joint All Domain Strategist cohort and 15 other civilian policy and senior PME schools at the 2023 U.S. Army War College Strategy Competition. This marked year five of data collection for a longitudinal study on military learners' problem-solving and strategic thinking skills in group settings. AUTLC TEAM SPOTLIGHT

Mr. Andrew Moulton,
Curriculum Developer & Instructor
joined the AUTLC in November after serving for 20 years in the U.S. Air Force. Most recently, he served as the Superintendent of Educational Technology at the Barnes Center. Andrew's educational philosophy comes from Epictetus, who said, "Only the educated are free." He says, "To me, [that] means I am free to explore, create, develop, and challenge existing thoughts and theories. I love teaching because education provides that freedom through opportunities that my students may otherwise not have had." You can find Andrew on the second floor of the MSFRIC (building 1405), where he holds faculty consultations and teaches faculty development workshops such as "Active Learning Strategies" and "Game-based Learning."
